For donations of $5,000 or more only:

In order to be tax deductible, the IRS requires gifts of $5,000 or more to be accompanied by a formal third-party appraisal and the IRS form 8283 completed by a registered appraiser and signed by the Director of Development. It is the responsibility of the donor to obtain the appraisal and IRS form.

FAIR MARKET VALUE: _____ As determined by: ☐ DONOR ☐ AUTHORIZED APPRAISER

If over $5,000: I intend to submit an IRS Form 8283 for CROW to countersign? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Guidelines:

A gift-in-kind is a non-cash gift of physical property or service. Examples of gifts-in-kind include, but are not limited to books, supplies, equipment, artwork and furniture.

The Clinic for the Rehabilitation of Wildlife (CROW) is prohibited by IRS regulations from establishing monetary values for gifts or real or personal property.

Donations are tax deductible in keeping with IRS regulations.

CROW will send the donor a written gift acknowledgement upon receiving this completed form.

All gifts of equipment and materials donated to CROW become the property of the Clinic for the Rehabilitation of Wildlife.

CROW Representative: Upon completion, make a copy of this form. Give copy to the donor and original to CROW's Development Director.
